Black and white photography by Donna Varner and Jean-Marie Côté

The mystery and modernity of black and white photography come to the Lowcountry at the hands of fine art photographers Donna Varner and Jean-Marie Côté.

The exhibition, Unspoken Dialogue, opening March 5th at the Art League of Hilton Head, is strong on design and emotional appeal. The show will run the month of March at the Walter Greer Gallery At the Arts Center of Coastal Carolina.

Artists Donna Varner and Jean-Marie Côté have followed their respective muses into the black and white genre and the results are striking. Varner's work is part street photography, part textural

Read more Art [redacted]